REMEMBER the Republican primaries next Tuesday evening. All who are interested in the success of the party should be sure to be on hand.

THE retiring aldermen all made pleasant speeches at the council meeting last night, and these were responded to by the new aldermen, and those who hold over, in an equally agreeable manner.

A BILL to prevent treating has been introduced in the House at Springfield. It is proposed to attach a penalty of from $5 to $15 to the pernicious practice of "setting up the drinks all around," the proceeds of the fines to go to the School Fund, while candidates for office may be fined $50 or imprisoned twenty days for offering to treat their constituents.

THE value of cheese and butter produced annually in the United States is estimated at $350,000,000. This is about $50,000,000 more than the value of the wheat crop. The last few years has shown a large increase in these valuable products. The associations and conventions which have been done much toward systematizing and perfecting the manufacture of all kinds of dairy products.

A CHEERING OUTLOOK

In our local columns will be found the official report of the proceedings of the council meeting held last night, including Mayor Haworth's inaugural. The mayor is to be complimented upon the good sense he has shown in omitting the usual string of promises from his address. He has not hampered himself in this respect, and is therefore free to pursue whatever course seems most judicious, with reference to questions of public policy. Of the appointments made by the mayor too much cannot be said in praise, and the fact that all were confirmed unanimously is of itself sufficient to show their eminent fitness. Mr. Hardy and Mr. Burgess have long held the offices to which they were re-appointed, and have shown by their acts that they are in every way worthy. Mr. Shorb has been street supervisor during the past year, and has given perfect satisfaction. The streets of the city were never in as good condition at the opening of the winter season as they were last December. Mr. Shorb's appointment will give general satisfaction among all classes of our people. No better appointment for deputy marshal could have been made than that of Mr. Barnett. He possesses every qualification necessary, and we risk nothing in predicting that he will make an excellent officer. Patrick Kearney, who was appointed on the police force, is a young man of very fine character, and will make a good policeman.

The spirit which prevailed at the council meeting, and which manifested itself in the speeches of the aldermen, gives promise of good results for the year that has just begun. A spirit of harmony and conciliation was manifest that formed a pleasing contrast with the severe and bitter temper that exhibited itself in the council a year ago. The outlook is cheering, and the people have good reasons to expect that beneficial results will follow as a natural consequence of the spirit of harmony which seems to prevail among our municipal officers.

THE BRANDON (Miss.) Republican is ready to admit that the Republican party in Mississippi is not dead, but, having beguiled certain Democrats into its ranks, is preparing for a new conflict. The Republicans fear the bulldozers will have to do their work over again.

SAD stories are told about the state of affairs in Memphis. In addition to the financial ruin of the city and the public health, every man in the city who can do so is begging, saving and scraping money together with which to get away next summer, when it is feared the yellow-fever will rage again with redoubled fury.

A NEW TELEPHONE.

London Times, Feb. 25th.

There has been recently exhibited to the French Academy a telephone with some novel features, and said to give remarkably good effects. It is the invention of Mr. Gower, an American. He uses very strong magnets, made of the best French steel known, and magnetized by means of a large electro-magnet, deriving its current from a powerful Gramme machine. The magnetic bar is bent in a semi-circle, with its end or poles projecting inward, and having each a small oblong piece of iron, on which is mounted a coil of wire. These parts are inclosed in a shallow cylindrical brass case, the cover of which carries the vibrating membrane, (rather thicker than usual,) separated from it by an excessively thin chamber, and attached by means of a brass ring and screws, (which latter do not touch the membrane at any point). The old form or telephonic mouth-piece is abandoned, and a flexible acoustic tube, with mouth-piece, is attached to the middle of the cover. Thus, one may speak sitting at a table while the telephone is attached to the wall. Perhaps the most novel feature is the use of a telephone call, consisting of a small tube, bent at a right angle, and containing a vibrating reed; this tube is fixed on one side of the membrane. On blowing into the acoustic tube this reed is vibrated, and, consequently, also the membrane, which then moves in excursions large enough to be felt with the finger. A correspondingly strong sound is produced in the receiving telephone through vibration of its membrane, which sound may be perceived in half of any size, and even (from its peculiar timbre) when other sounds are present. The tube with a reed in it does not injure, but rather improves the distinctness of transmitted speech. Simple phrases spoken with a loud voice into the transmitter are heard as far as five or six metres from the receiver,—a result never achieved before.

BOUND TO BE COMPLETED

No matter how many times the hopes of our citizens for the completion of the Indianapolis, Decatur & Springfield Railway have been raised only to be disappointed, there can now be no doubt that by the 1st day of January, 1870, trains will be running regularly to and from the State Capital of Indianapolis. The money for its completion has already been secured, and of course the company will not pay interest on money without using it. Col. Moore and Fred Peck, with a corps of surveyors, left Tuscola on Wednesday to begin re-setting the center-stakes. Col. Moore will secure the right of way, and the contract for building the first division will probably be let in April. Several contractors are ready and anxious to begin work immediately. C. W. Powell, of Paris, has already obtained the contract for furnishing ties and other timber for the extension eastward, and has gone to work in earnest. All together, it looks as though business was meant. Our citizens heartily appreciate the advantages of an eastern outlet, and for once they will not be disappointed. Laborers out of employment will probably find a chance soon to get steady work and cash payment.

Not Symptoms, but the Disease.

It would seem to be a truth appreciable by all, and especially by professors of the healing art, that to remove the disease, not to alleviate its symptoms, should be the chief aim of medication. Yet in how many instances do we see this truth admitted in theory, ignored in practice.—The reason that Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is successful in so many cases, with which remedies previously tried were inadequate to cope, is attributable to the fact that it is a medicine which reaches and removes the causes of the various malady to which it is adapted. Indigestion, fever and ague, liver complaint, gout, rheumatism, disorders of the bowels, urinary affections and other maladies, are not palliated merely, but rooted out by it. It goes to the fountain head. It is really, not nominally, a radical remedy, and it endows the system with an amount of vigor which is its best protection against disease.

STOLEN PROPERTY RECOVERED.—In our issue of yesterday attention was called to the fact that Sheriff Forstmyer had in his possession a string of sleigh bells, parts of harness and some horse blankets which he found at a house west of town under the operation of a search warrant. Yesterday a Mr. Watkins, who lives near Warrensburg, called and identified all the articles except one strap as belonging to him, and said they were taken from his sleds last January, while his team was hitched north of the railroad on North Main street. The lady at whose house the articles were found says that the boy in which they were was brought to her house sometime during the winter by June Blackburn, but as that gentleman is now in the penitentiary he will go clear of any molestation on account of this little larceny. Some further disclosures may come out of this little find tending to implicate parties who are now at large.

Ir will pay you to call and see the bargains left in jewelry, etc., etc., at J. L. Kuleper's, 20 Merchant street, one door north of old stand.
